

PARTNERSHIP WORTH A MEDAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

22 - 23.01.2024

POZNAŃ INTERNATIONAL FAIR

MAIN HALL

10:30-12:00

The secret weapon of the best in the arena. Learning theory of horses and shaping correct riders' responses.

Krzysztof Skorupski

12:00-13:15

The Ridden Horse Pain Ethogram. An objective tool to assess horses' performance.

Sue Dyson

13:15-14:30 LUNCH BREAK

14:30-15:10

Changing the status quo by keeping an open and inquisitive mind.

Eva Van Avermaet

15:10-16:00

What are the moral duties of officials for the welfare of horses and equine sports?

Christian Landolt

16:00-17:00

The official veterinarian: a guarantor of horse welfare or an alibi?

Charles Trolliet

17:00-17:30 COFFEE BREAK

17:30-18:00

The love of equestrian rewritten.

Dominik Nowacki

18:00-19:00

Improving sport horse welfare and performance through evidence informed management.

Jane Williams

MAIN HALL

9:00-10:00

The role of judges in writing the new chapter in equestrian history.

Krzysztof Skorupski

10:00-11:30

Stress reducing strategies. Understand and master practical tools to stress reduction, and improve performance and welfare, for both horse and rider.

Susan Kjaergaard

11:30-12:00 COFFEE BREAK

12:00-13:30

The essential equine biomechanics. Gain better performance and sustainability through respect and knowledge of the natural biomechanics of the horse.

Susan Kjaergaard

13:30-14:30 LUNCH BREAK

14:30-15:30

Special Guest

Henrik Ankarcróna, Chef d'Équipe Swedish jumping team

15:30-16:00 COFFEE BREAK

16:00-18:00

Moderated panel discussion by Annamaria Sobierajska

Marcin Kamiński

Krzysztof Skorupski

Marlena Gruca-Rucińska

Monika Bartyś

Daria Kobiernik